

MACRO

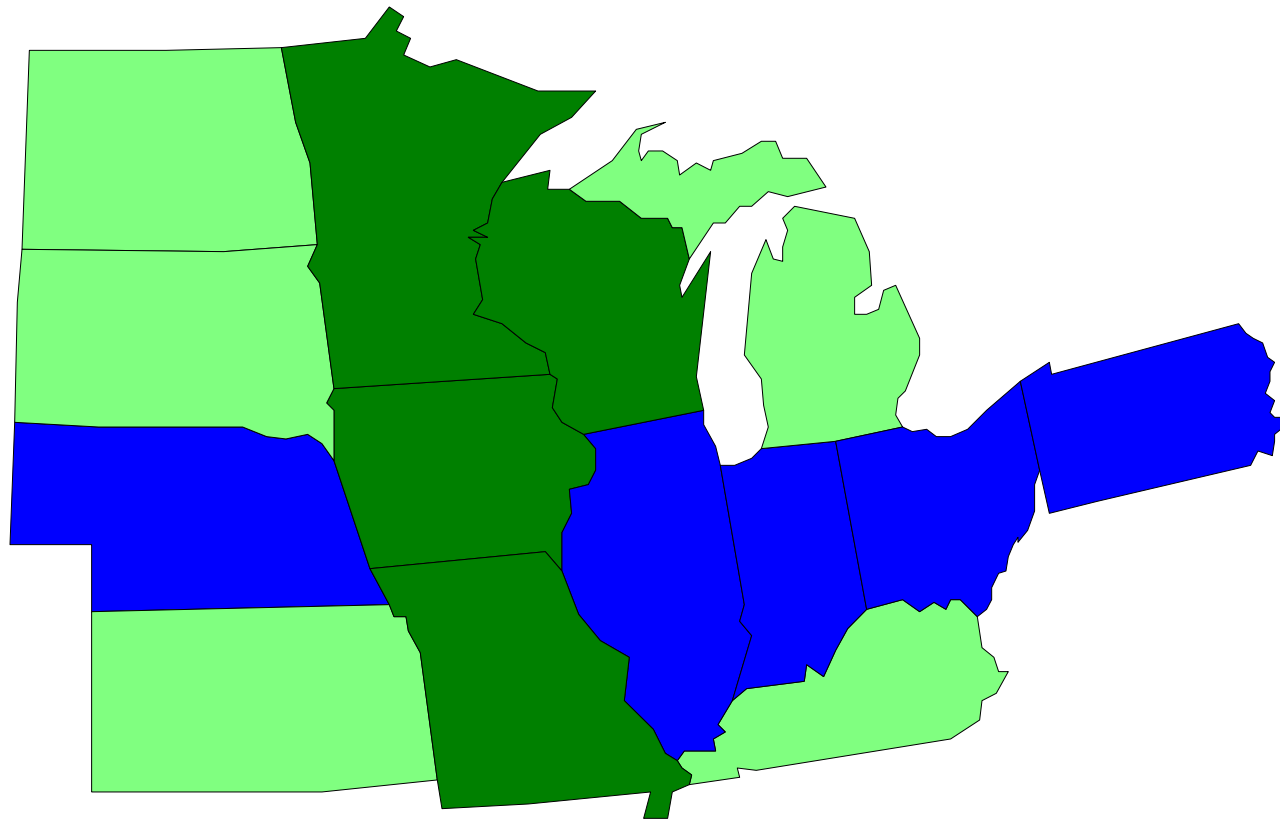

Mid-America
Council of Recycling
Officials

Representing government source reduction, recycling and market development officials from fourteen mid-America states.

MACRO Region REI Studies

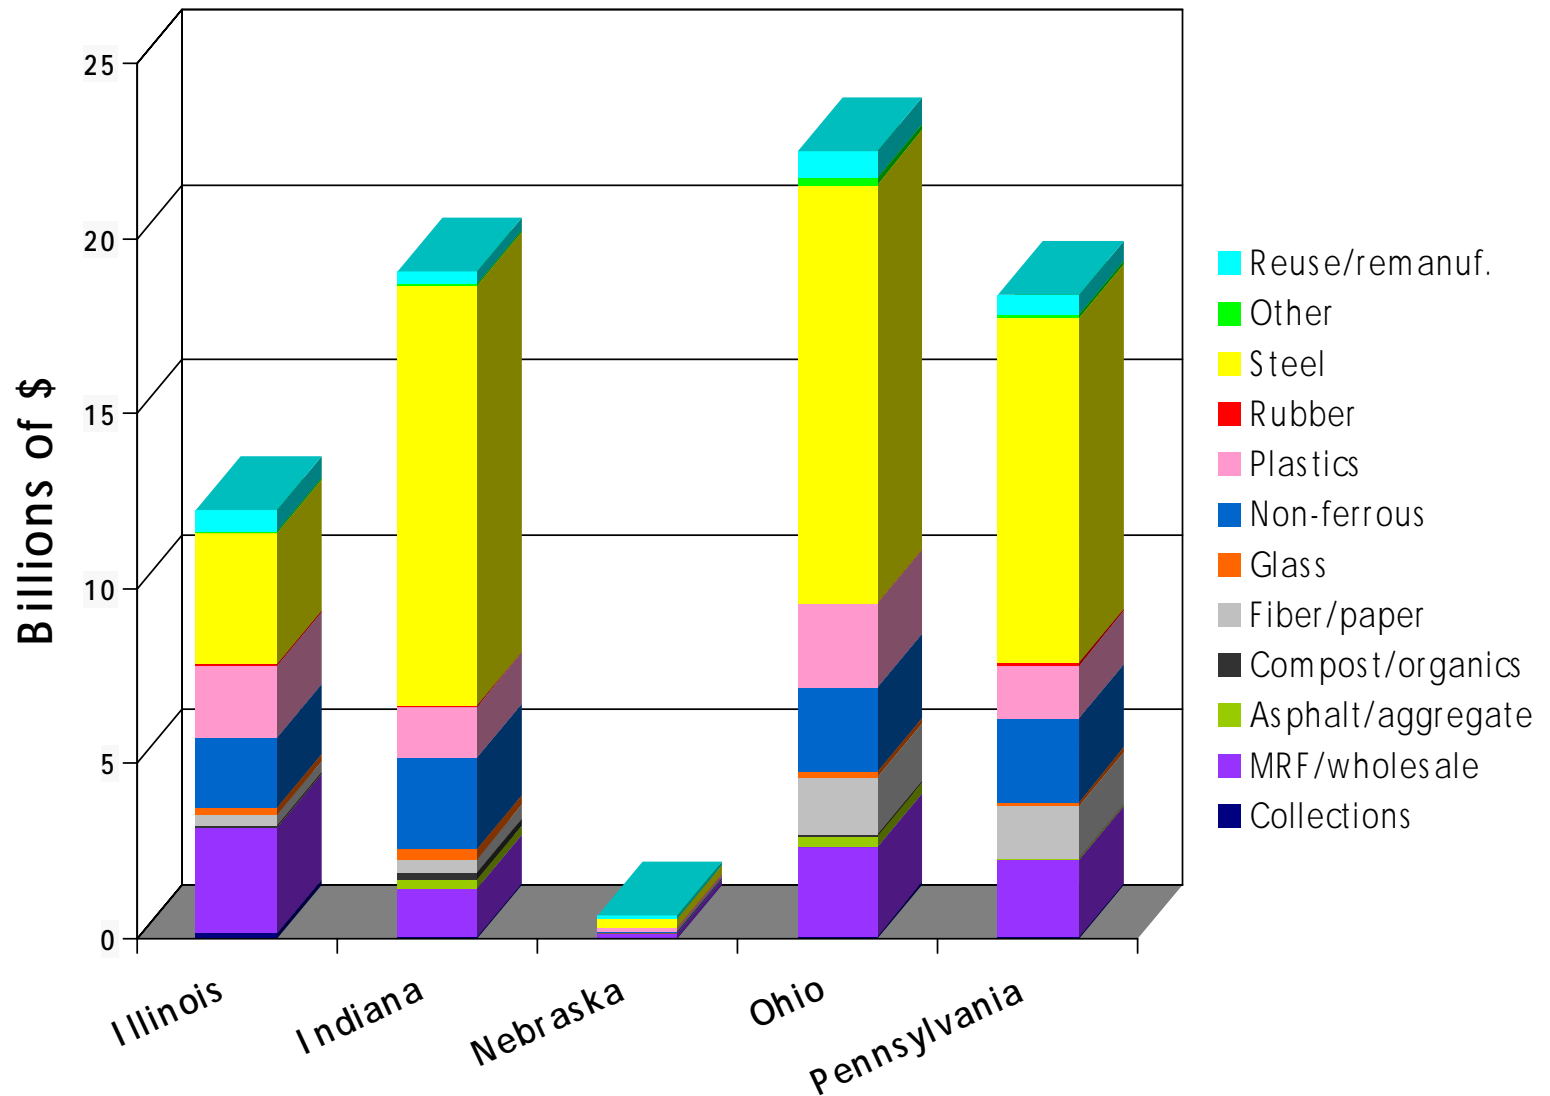

- State Level REI studies
- States using part of REI Methodology

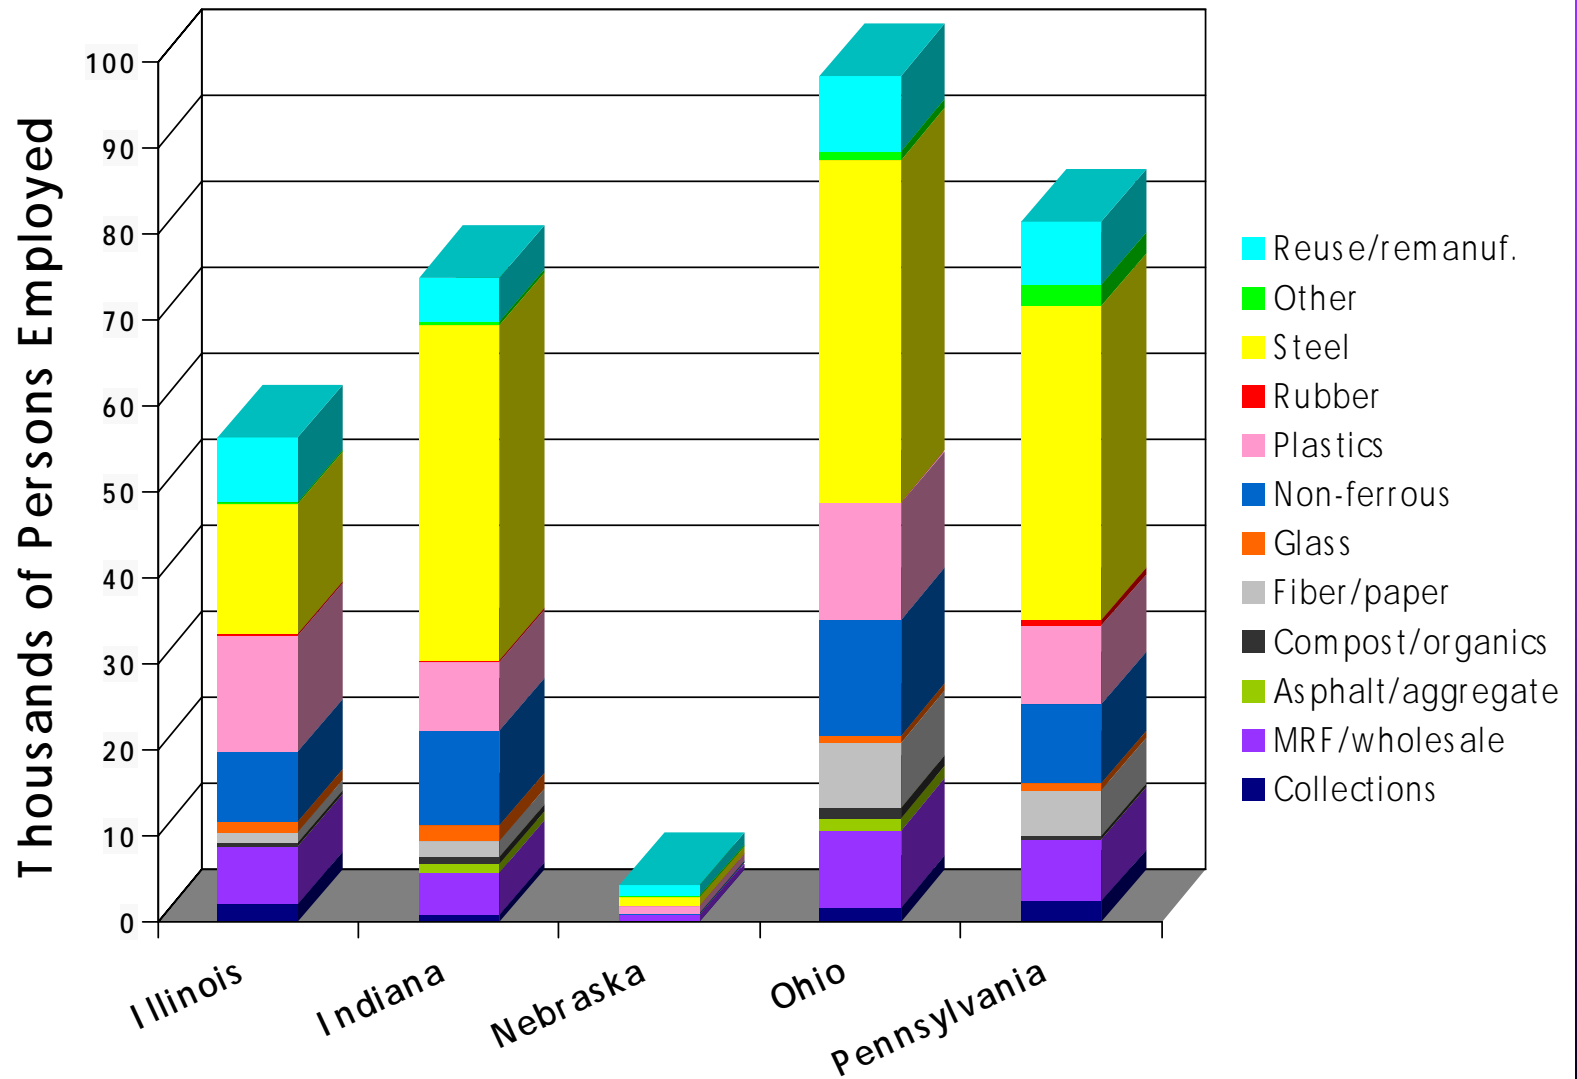

RECYCLING INDUSTRY IMPACT

Direct Economic Impact of Recycling Sales/Receipts

Direct Economic Impact of Recycling Employment

Direct Economic Impact of Recycling Wages

Findings of the ILLINOIS REI Study

Direct Economic Impacts

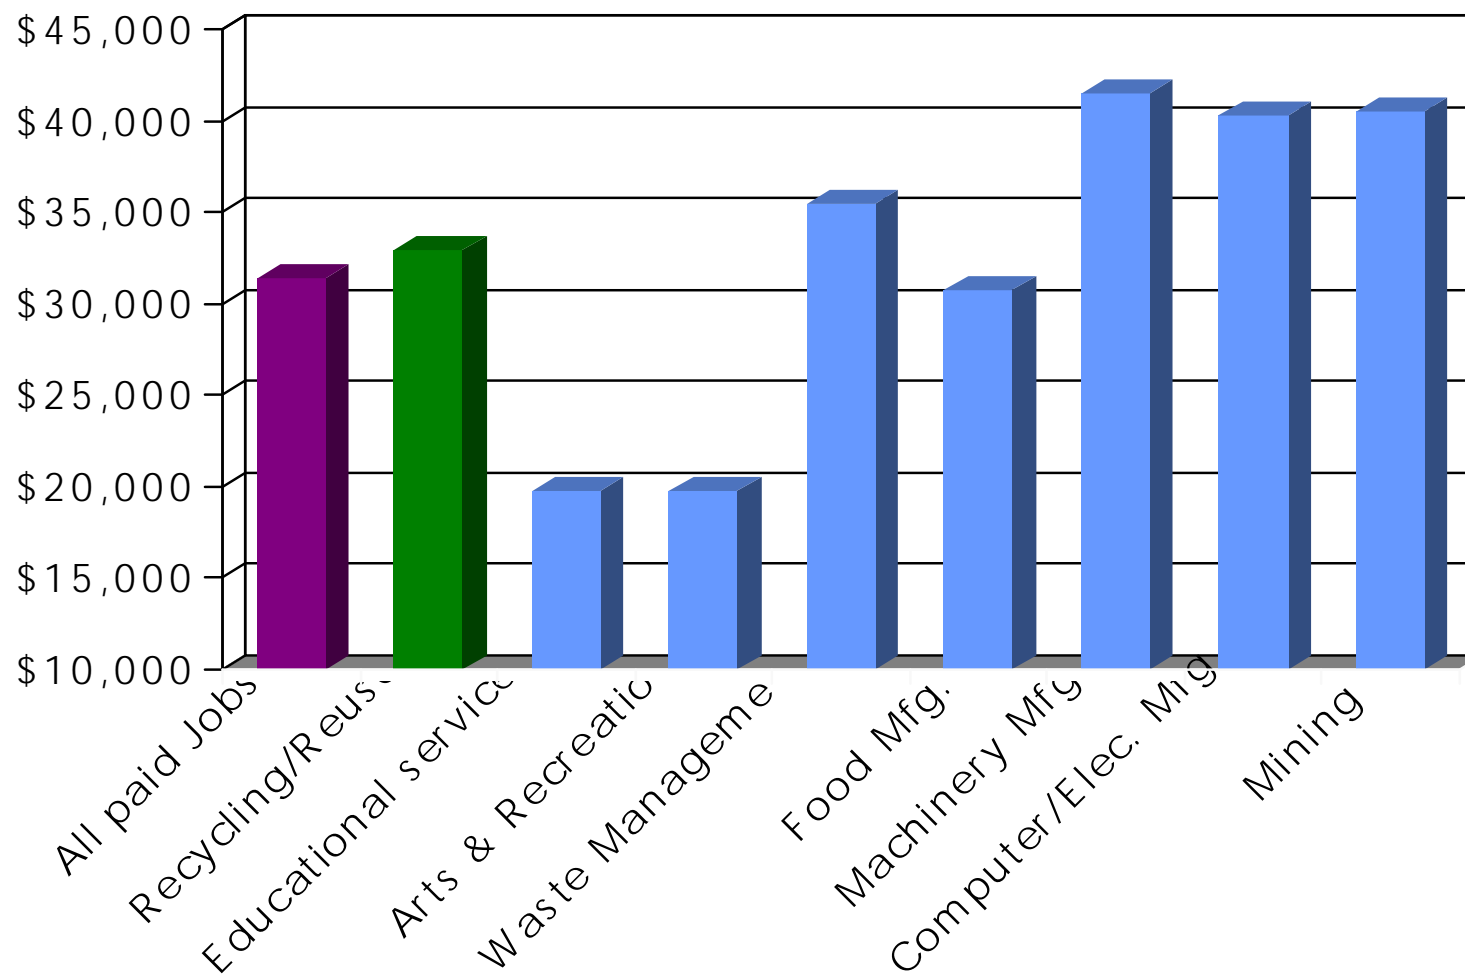

- ⊕ 2412 recycling/reuse establishments do business in Illinois.
- ⊕ 56,000 people are employed in recycling/reuse.
- ⊕ $1.8 Billion in wages are paid to those employees.
- ⊕ These businesses gross $12.67 Billion annually,
- ⊕ and pay $269.7 Million in state and local taxes.

Findings of the ILLINOIS REI Study

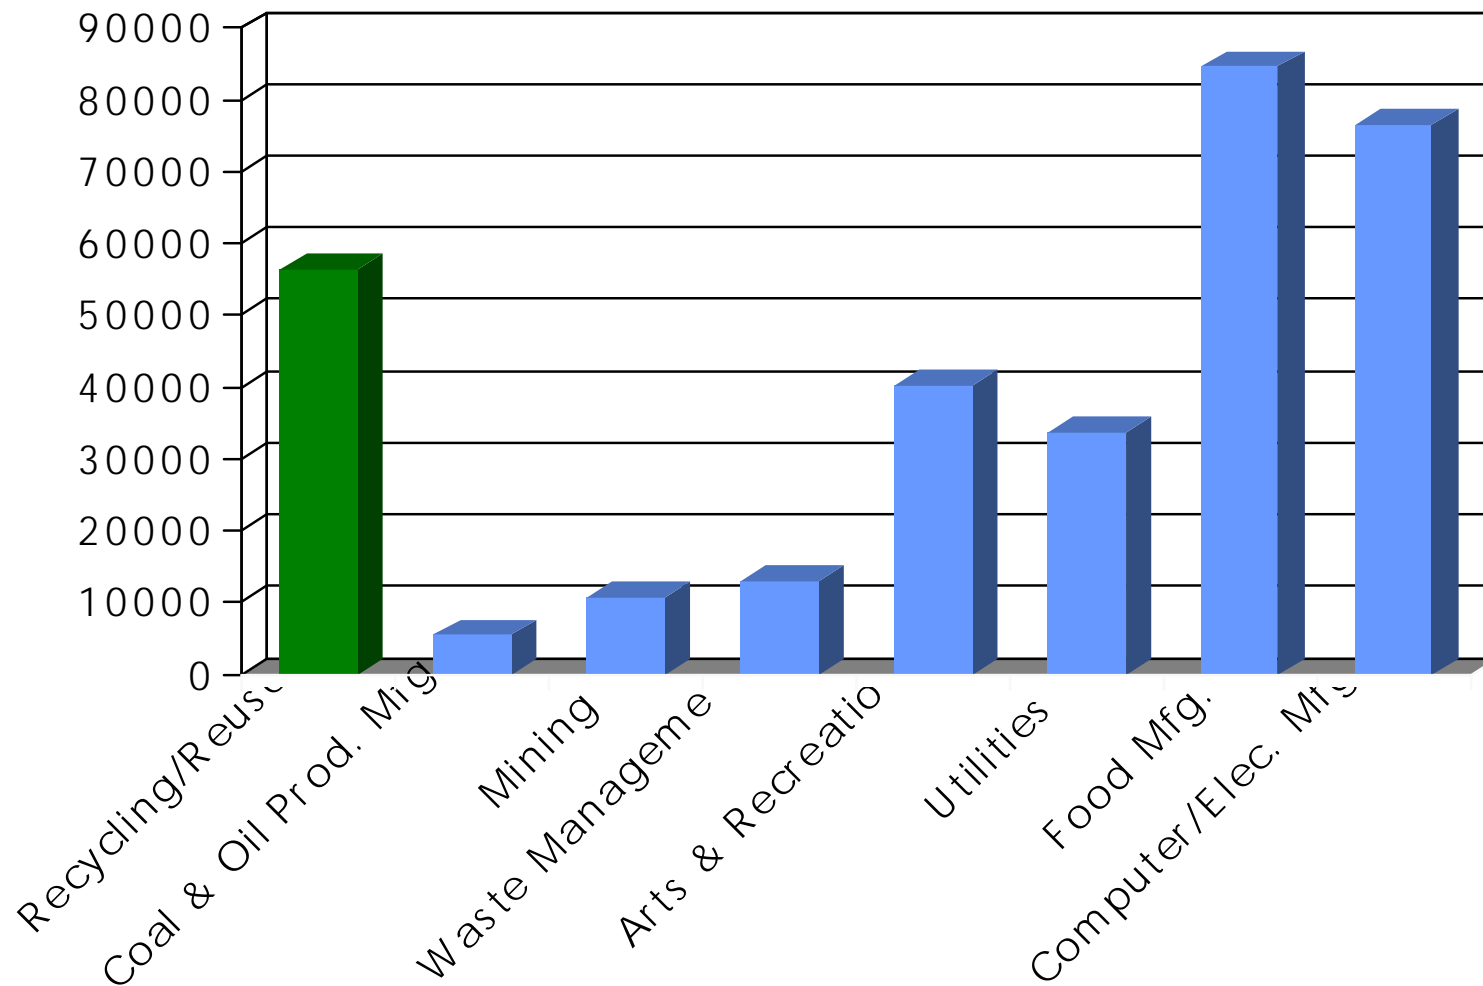

Largest Contributors

- ⊕ Plastics Converters
 - 12,195 Employees
 - $1.9 Billion annual receipts
- ⊕ Steel Mills
 - 9,199 Employees
 - $2.9 Billion Annual receipts
- ⊕ Recyclable Material Wholesalers
 - 6,104 Employees
 - $3.0 Billion annual receipts
- ⊕ Iron and Steel Foundries
 - 5, 789 Employees
 - $0.8 Billion annual receipts

Comparison of Annual Wages per Job

Comparison of Industry Employment

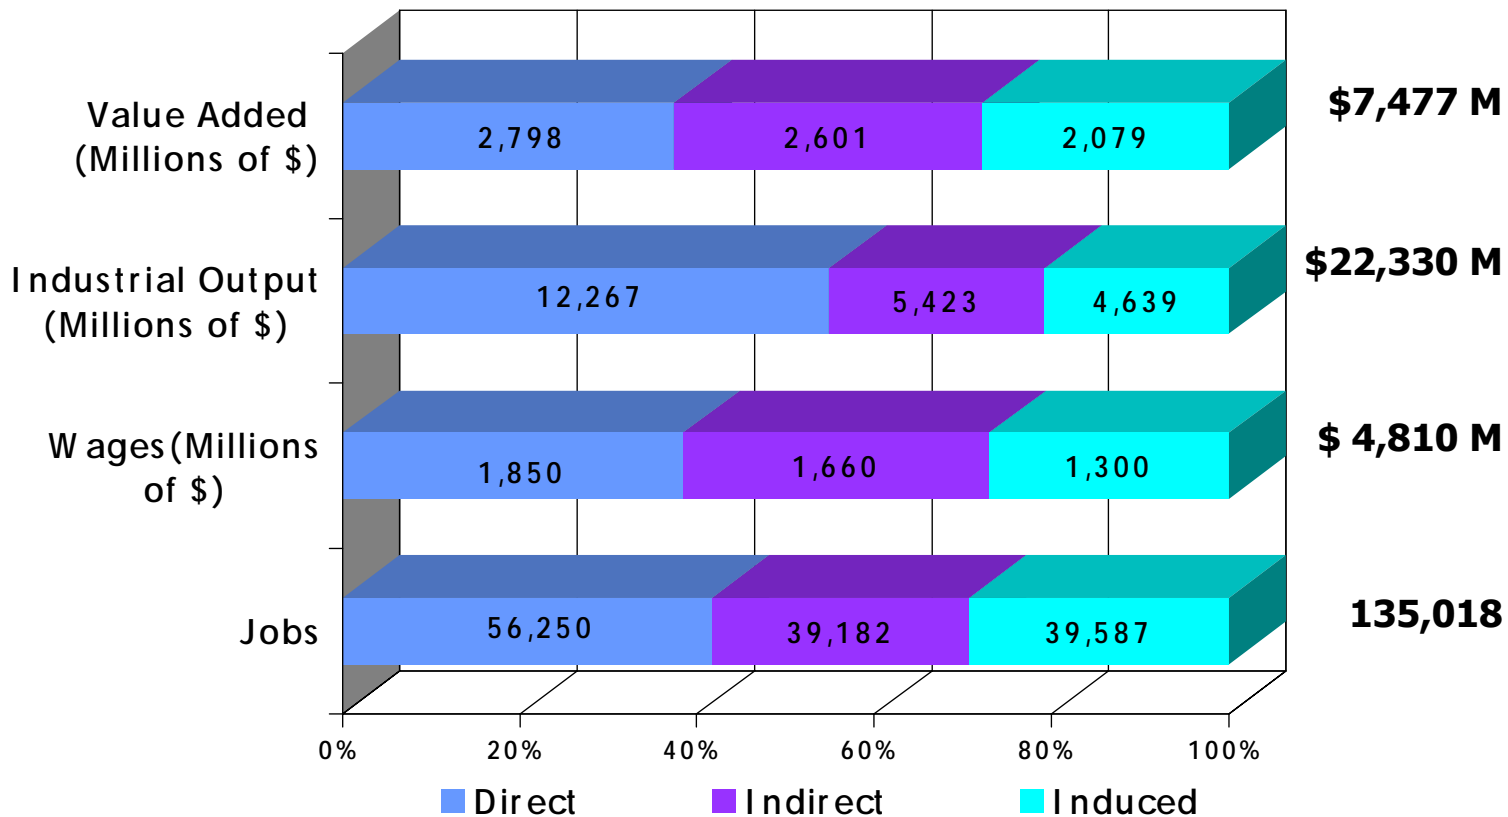

Comparison of Total Receipts

Findings of the ILLINOIS REI Study

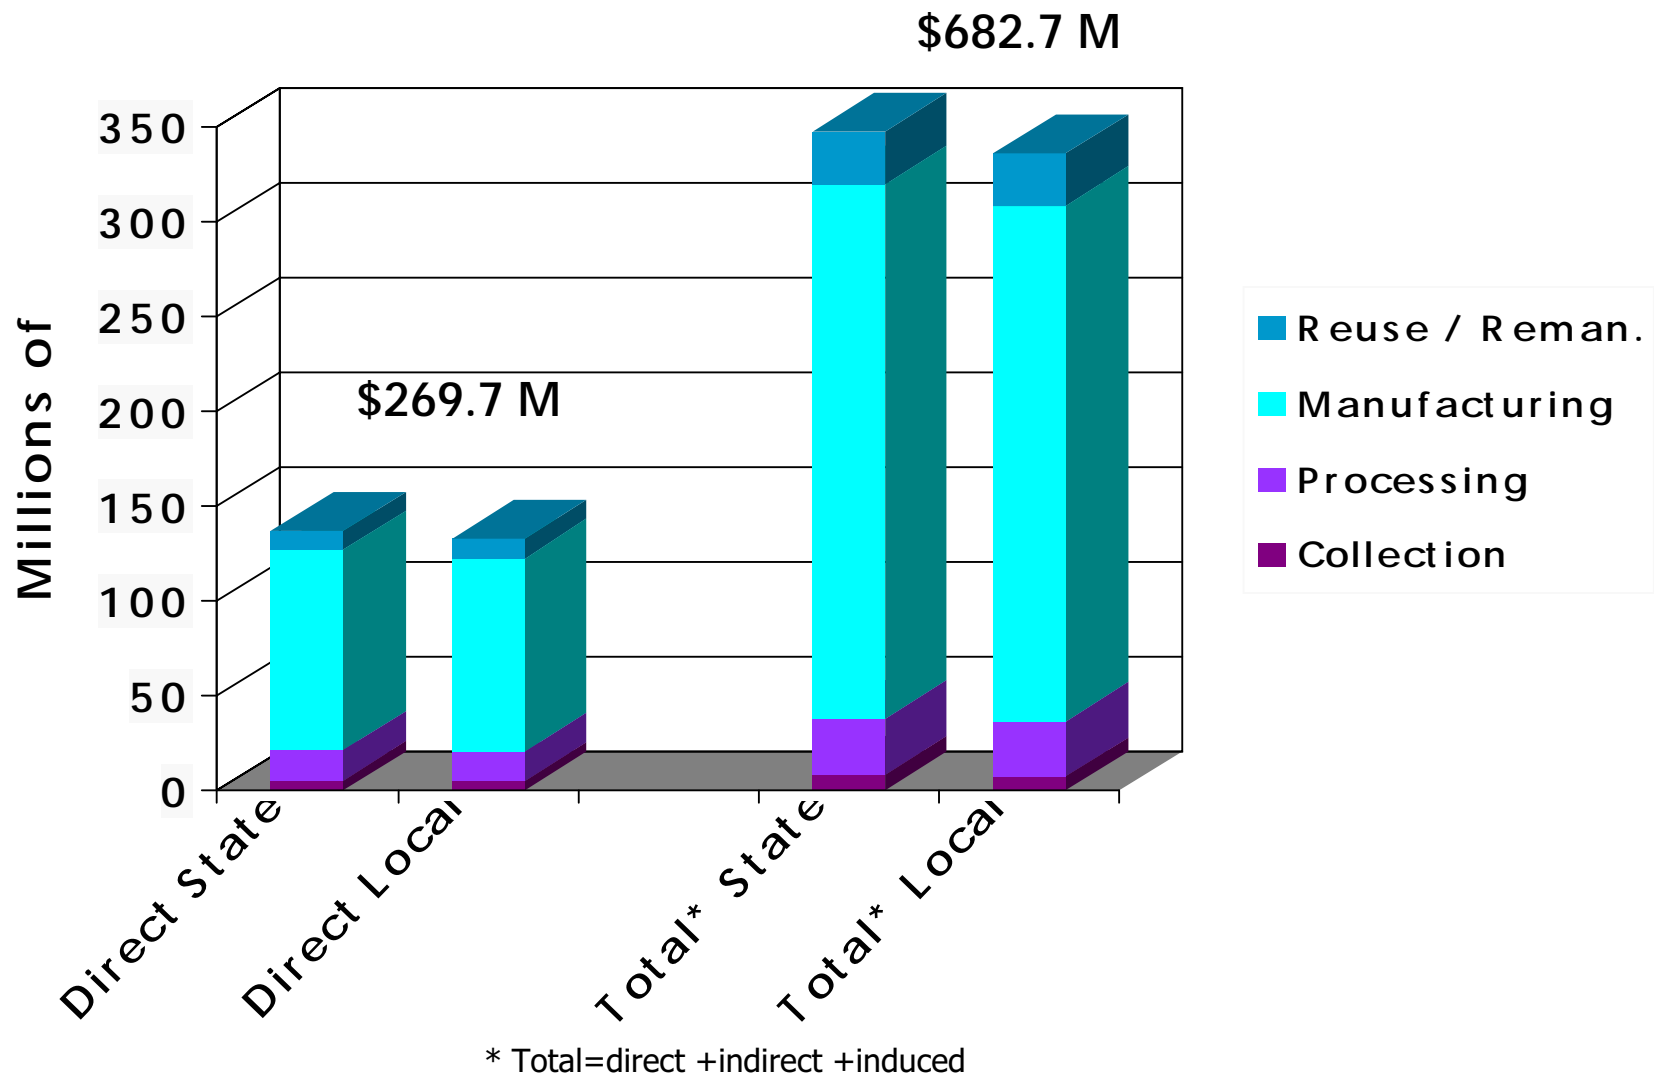

Total Economic Value of Recycling

Totals

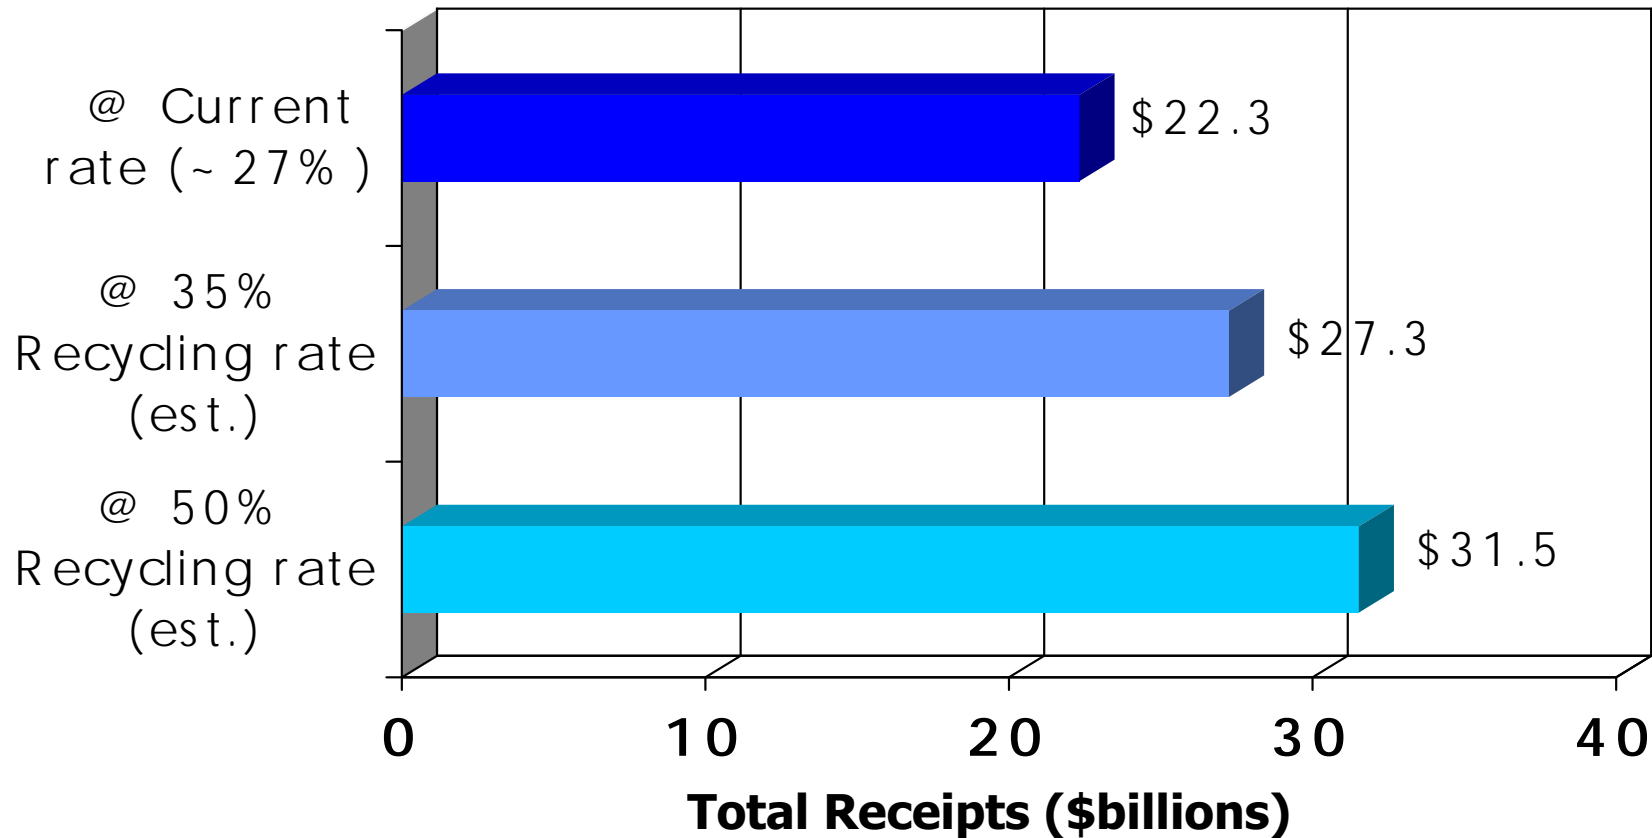

Findings of the ILLINOIS REI Study

Contribution to Government Revenues

Future Growth Opportunities

How can the NE MW Institute help publicize the REI results?

What can the NE MW Senate Coalition do to boost recycling?